The United States and Japan were marshaling probably their greatest land, sea and air forces of the war for a decisive battle in the Solomon Islands today as a vast enemy fleet bore down on American-held Guadalcanal Island and newly-arrived U. S. army troops and planes were disclosed to have joined in the struggle.

AXIS TROOPS REINFORCED IN BALKANS

Nazi-created State of Croatia Reported To Be Torn By Civil Strife In Many Sections

OPEN REVOLT SPREADS

Bern, Switzerland, Oct. 15.—(P)—The Nazi-created state of Croatia was reported today by civil strife today, with followers of the powerful peasant leader, Dr. Vladimir Macke, in open revolt against the puppet government of Dr. Ante Pavelic.

Yugoslav sources said an army of about 44,000 well-organized peasants was battling Pavelic's brown-shirted militia. The militia has organized in emulation of Premier Mussolini's blackshirts.

The revolt added to the complications facing the Axis armies of occupation in Yugoslavia, already engaged in bitter strife with the insurgent forces of General Draza Mihailovic, who has been waging guerrilla warfare from the fastnesses of the Yugoslav mountains.

Mihailovic was said to be constantly reinforcing his army, and the effectiveness of his campaign was demonstrated by official Italian figures reporting that 4,389 soldiers had been killed and 4,190 wounded in the Balkans in the last 10 months.

(Advices from Ankara, Turkey, said reports were current there that the Croat might take over control of Croatia and Slovenia because of dissatisfaction with Italy's failure to cope with continued anti-Axis outbreaks. These reports said Germany might also demand full control of the Adriatic port of Trieste, which Italy got from Austria at the end of the first World War.)

Communications in Yugoslavia were reported in a turmoil as a result of repeated attacks by German and Italian troops on the Yugoslav railroads. Yugoslav quarters said 46 trains had been derailed in Croatia alone in September and declared that Nazi troops were compelled to guard the whole length of the Zagreb-Belgrade railway.

These quarters expressed belief that the Croat revolt had been stirred up by the arrest of Macke and five (Turn to Page Thirteen)

ARMY ABOUT READY TO TAKE OVER HOSPITAL

Harrisburg, Oct. 15.—(P)—Only bondholders' approval was needed today for the army to lease the Butler tuberculosis sanatorium. The war department plans to spend more than $2,000,000 in transforming the unused $2,400,000 state institution into an army hospital.

The army announced that construction would be supervised by Pittsburgh district U. S. army engineers.

The authority built the 550-bed sanatorium in 1939 but it was never placed in operation. Frye said the army planned to increase the bed capacity to 1,500.

Red Capital, Confident On Anniversary Of Evacuation

Moscow, Oct. 15.—(P)—Moscow, which just a year ago was being evacuated under German land and air attacks, stood with new strength today.

It was the morning of Oct. 15, 1941, that Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov called in Laurence A. Steinhardt and Sir Stafford Cripps, the ambassadors of the United States and Britain at the time, and told them the foreign embassy must leave.

The diplomatic train pulled out in a snowstorm that night for Kuybyshev, on the Volga, more than cars carried withdrawing Russians. The first anniversary generally went unnoticed. But to those who went through it and returned, Moscow presents a striking contrast.

Then air raid sirens screamed almost nightly. Now Moscow shows virtually no signs of attacks and has not been bombed since April 5.

Then life was emptying out. The population of 4,000,000 was reduced by half. Now fresh blood flows in and the figure is back up to 2,800,000.

Ample food stocks are said to be on hand for another war winter.

Government Calling For Excess Tires

No Car Supposed to Have More Than One Spare, Edict Declares

THE PURCHASING PLAN

Washington, Oct. 15.—(P)—The largest tire sale in the nation's history was under way today with only one buyer—Uncle Sam.

The sellers, motorists everywhere with more than five tires, were numbered in the thousands as the government called for every "excess" tire in an effort to keep America rolling.

Uncle Sam was ready to spend $150,000,000, the amount advanced by the Defense Supplies Corporation which designated 160 warehouses throughout the country as delivery points.

All a prospective seller has to do, the Office of Price Administration explained last night, is to ask where rationing will be effective. The nearest office of the Railroad Express agency to send a truck to pick up his tires.

The purchasing plan is connected with nationwide gasoline rationing regulations which limit each private car to five tires. Rationing coupons, the OPA has ruled, will be issued to private cars only after the owners submit serial numbers of their tires and certify they have no more than five for each automobile. The maximum penalty for false certification is a $10,000 fine and a 10-year prison term.

In the east's 17 gasoline-rationed states, certification will be required for continuous use of coupons. In the rest of the nation where rationing will be effective Nov. 22, registration for coupon books begins Nov. 9.

Value of the relinquished tires, which will be rationed to motorists on the basis of need, will be determined at the warehouses.

OPA ceiling prices for used tires govern the amounts to be paid.

School Drive Is Extended

Harrisburg, Oct. 15.—(P)—Scrap metal collected in the Pennsylvania United Campaign totaled 132,145 tons today with Lehigh and Bradford counties qualifying for War Production Board pennants by contributing more than 100 pounds per capita.

State salvage officials announced the school children's drive would be extended a week, from Saturday to Oct. 24, to permit all pupils to compete for the right to attend launching of a Liberty ship. The ship will be named by the state's school children.

State headquarters said Lehigh county was the first to reach the 100 pounds per person goal. It reported 18,203,584 pounds—102.5 pounds for every resident.

Over the state 57 counties have listed collections. Philadelphia is in the lead with 26,536 tons. The goal is 500,000 tons by midnight Saturday.

WILLKIE WILL MAKE REPORT ON HIS TOUR

Former Republican Candidate for President Re-news Plea For a Second Front

CONFIDENCE IN RUSSIA

BY DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Washington, Oct. 15.—(P)—Wendell L. Willkie stepped out of the role of personal representative of the president and back into that of private citizen today after ending an epochal circuit of the world and appealing anew for a second front.

From the White House itself, where he reported to President Roosevelt late yesterday on a 31,000 mile tour that took him to fighting fronts in the Middle East, Russia and China, Willkie urged that a second front be established. He had made the same appeal in Moscow.

Yet he told reporters: "In my judgment, Germany will never conquer Russia."

Willkie said he had his own opinion where a second front should be opened, but he was unwilling to name the spot. He based his decision that there should be one, he asserted, on talks with "military men all over the world."

"May I say without boast," he remarked, "that I have had considerable experience in judging recommendations of technical men."

Seated on a circular mahogany table in the White House lobby, Willkie asserted with confidence: "Sure, we're going to win this war. We have the power and the resources on our side."

But he said he was concerned over the cost in human lives and human values and over winning the peace as well as the war.

Willkie, the Republican presidential nominee in 1940, toured 14 (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Close Guard Over Ousted Nazi In Chile

Santiago, Chile, Oct. 15.—(P)—Chilean police were reported increasing the guard today over Dr. Hans Borchers, former German consul general in New York and former consul in Cleveland, who arrived in this country last March without diplomatic or consular credentials.

It was understood that Borchers, who was ousted from the United States in 1941 following the closing of German consulates by federal order, had been placed under surveillance at Zapallar, seaside resort north of Valparaiso.

Police were said to be taking three other men, arrested last week as German spies and refused permission to enter Argentina, to the same resort. They were identified as Alfred Kleiber, Ludwig Ross and Wilhelm Dornbach.

No official statement was forthcoming immediately regarding Borchers, known as an associate of Fritz Weidemann, former German consul general at San Francisco, who travelled widely in South America and the Orient after his ouster from the United States.

WAR BULLETINS

Berlin (From German Broadcasts), Oct. 15.—(P)—The Berlin radio declared today that United States efforts to alienate Italy from the Axis by removing the enemy alien restrictions upon her nationals in the United States were doomed to fail.

Washington, Oct. 15.—(P)—German occupation costs France $7,500,000 daily, the fighting French delegation in Washington reported today.

Chester, S. C., Oct. 15.—(P)—Seven men lost their lives in the crash of an army bomber in a field near Richburg, midway between Chester and Lancaster, last night, public relations officials at the Greenville, S. C., army air base, where the bomber was based, announced today.

London, Oct. 15.—(P)—The government asked the house of commons today to approve the expenditure of another £1,000,000,000 ($4,000,000,000) for the war, making a total of £4,000,000,000 ($16,000,000,000) in votes of credit since last March 31, the beginning of the fiscal year.

London, Oct. 15.—(P)—The Institute of London Underwriters announced today a reduction in cargo war risk insurance rates between the Americas and Australasia.

Sugar Stamp No. 9 Good After Nov. 1st

Washington, Oct. 15.—(P)—Sugar ration stamp No. 9 will be good for the purchase of three pounds of sugar for home use between November 1 and December 15, the Office of Price Administration announced today.

Stamp No. 8, which calls for five pounds, expires at midnight October 31.

OPA also announced allotments for industrial in institutional users for November and December.

Institutional users, including hotels, restaurants and similar institutions, will receive 60 per cent of the sugar base established by them. An allotment of 85 per cent has been established for hospitals treating patients suffering from acute illness and temporarily residing in the hospital.

Top Ranking Jap Officers Among Dead

Heavy Nipponese Losses Disclosed In Posthumous Awards In Tokyo

SOULS ARE ENSHRINED

New York, Oct. 15.—(P)—Heavy Japanese losses of top ranking army and navy commanders in the opening months of the war in the Pacific were disclosed belatedly today in a Tokyo broadcast of posthumous awards of the order of the golden kite, Japan's highest military decoration.

A vice admiral, two rear admirals and two major generals were among thousands honored after death in connection with a current extraordinary national festival of enshrining the souls at Yasukuni shrine.

The order of the golden kite alone—and many other orders were conferred—went posthumously to 955 Japanese army and navy officers and men for their actions in the Pacific war, and to 3,031 others for services in China.

Even at that, it was an incomplete list. It covered only Pacific war losses up to mid-February, and was the 42nd such list of awards for services in China.

Also awarded the order of the golden kite were 55 naval aviators and nine "members of a special attack flotilla," presumably suicide submarines—who took part in the attack on Pearl Harbor.

BLACK WILL HEAD UP DEMOCRAT CAMPAIGN

Harrisburg, Oct. 15.—(P)—Ramsey S. Black, third assistant postmaster general, has been appointed chairman of the Pennsylvania Democratic campaign committee for the Nov. 3 election.

Black, a close associate of U. S. Senator Joseph P. Guffey, Pennsylvania Democrat, was an unsuccessful candidate for lieutenant governor in the May primaries.

Philadelphia, Oct. 15.—(P)—M. Harvey Taylor, Republican state chairman, said today the appointment of Ramsey S. Black as state campaign manager for F. Clair Ross, Democratic nominee for governor, was "a belated move to take the oft-repudiated David L. Lawrence off the firing line."

ATTACKS ARE REPELLED BY SOVIET ARMY

Invaders Using Smaller Forces Than Employed In Earlier Stages Of Offensive

INFANTRY TURNED BACK

BY HENRY C. CASSIDY
Moscow, Oct. 15.—(P)—The battle of Stalingrad deadlocked today in comparatively small scale actions with every probing thrust by German tanks and infantry reported repulsed.

Red army lines remained stable. The Germans buried additional men on the approaches to a workers settlement in Stalingrad's northwestern suburbs, the fallen of assaults which failed to reach the factories forming the backbone of the defense.

Although the invaders are using far smaller forces than they employed in the earlier Stalingrad offensive, the army newspaper Red Star said they had concentrated a considerable group of infantry and tanks in an effort to occupy the northern quarter.

The noon communiqué said attacks by Nazi armored and infantry forces were turned back and Russian artillery fire wiped out parts of two German battalions. (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Daylight Test Is Declared A Great Success

Harrisburg, Oct. 15.—(P)—Elimination of leaks which warned Pennsylvania in the past of coming air raid drills was claimed today by state defense officials after a study of reports of the first statewide surprise daylight rehearsal.

The practice held yesterday from 2 p. m. to 2:15 was the initial test of a new method used by the State Defense Council to notify the local officials when to sound the alarm.

Dr. A. C. Marts, state council director, said the plan involved "fanning out" the time of the drill by eight field representatives after they received telephoned code messages. Previously, notices of the time were mailed directly to local councils with directors to open the envelopes on a certain date.

Although the time of some earlier tests was known in advance to thousands, officials said the latest drill came as a complete surprise to almost everybody. Dr. Marts, who called the test "highly successful," said the new method was being favorably considered for use in the state-wide blackout promised before October 31.

As sirens signalled the start of yesterday's drill, the first staged during school hours, traffic came to stop throughout the state and residents scurried for shelter. Most streets were deserted except for defense workers and emergency vehicles.

Green Again Heads A. F. L.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 15.—(P)—The rank and file of the delegates to the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor headed home today after re-electing President William L. Green for his 18th full term and designating Boston as the 1943 convention city.

Elected with Green at the final session of the convention yesterday were Secretary-treasurer George Heany, 13 vice presidents and the 15 members of the executive council, which was summoned to a meeting today.

The convention went on record as not opposing war time "job freezing" as such, but asking only proper safeguards for affected workers.

In accepting another term as president, Green declared that solidarity within the ranks of labor must be a "solemn objective" during 1943, which he said he believed would be the decisive year in the war.

Bill To Boost Naval Outlay To 30 Billion

Measure Is Before Senate With Unanimous Approval Of Committee

14,611 MORE PLANES

Washington, Oct. 15.—(P)—A bill that would boost the fiscal year's outlay for the navy to $30,227,000,000 in cash and contractual authority went before the senate today with the unanimous approval of its appropriations committee.

The measure carried $2,862,000,000 for the construction of 14,611 additional naval planes. Included in it was an authorization for the navy to begin letting contracts on 500,000 tons of new aircraft carriers, 500,000 tons of cruisers, 900,000 tons of destroyers and escort vessels and 200,000 tons of auxiliary vessels at an overall cost of $9,500,000,000.

The measure would make $460,954,000 available for pay increases and to finance allowances to the dependents of navy, marine corps and coast guard personnel.

In approving the bill, the senate committee resorted to $600,000,000, the level requested by the budget (Turn to Page Thirteen)

ITALIAN GENERAL IS KILLED ON FRONT LINE

Rome (From Italian Broadcasts), Oct. 15.—(P)—The Italian high command announced today that General Alessandro Pignatelli, commander of the Italian "Brigata" division, had been killed in action on the Egyptian front on Oct. 13. The announcement gave no details, but paid tribute to the courage demonstrated by both Pignatelli and his troops.

QUAKER CITY GROCERS VIOLATING THE LAW

Philadelphia, Oct. 15.—(P)—The Office of Price Administration said today that hundreds of housewives had reported grocers refused to sell them bacon and coffee unless they bought $1 to $3 worth of other groceries.

Complainants also have charged that grocers punctured sealed cans of coffee and mixed the contents with cheaper grades or with chicory. The OPA pointed out that both practices are illegal.

Over Seventy Tons Of Junk Gathered By County Pupils

County Superintendent of Schools H. L. Blair has reported to Harrisburg headquarters that the schools in the county have gathered over 75 tons of scrap. This is an excellent record and the returns from all of the schools have not been received so the total may reach a much higher figure.

Some of the schools of the county have had remarkable success in their part in the drive. At Clarendon the pupils gathered over seven tons of scrap and have it all sold and on its way to win the war. Twelve dollars per ton was realized from the sale and the money will be put to good use in Youngsters and some other towns War Stamps and Bonds are being purchased with a portion of the money going to the U. S. O.

The drive for scrap is still going forward in this county under the direction of the committee headed by Wylie T. Corbett and good results are being obtained. The report of the local schools is not yet obtainable.

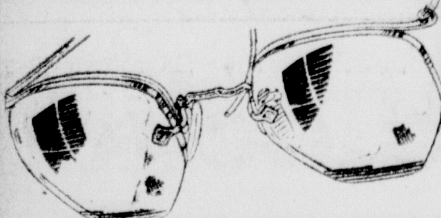

Arrangements for the Scrap Show at Library Theatre Saturday morning are going forward in fine shape. Details will be announced later but the fact remains that five pounds of scrap will pay the way. Trucks will be at the theatre ready to be loaded. A big crowd will see the picture program and a big load of scrap will be shown to the Dictators.

James City Lad Is Killed By Playmate

James City, Oct. 15.—Joseph Nunn, 10, was shot and accidentally killed this morning at the home of a playmate, Billy Roche, 12, while the latter was showing a World War revolver to a group of little friends. Young Roche was trying to load the gun with a clip of bullets he had found and one jammed and the gun was discharged. Young Nunn dropped to the floor and died almost instantly. The Roche boy in whose hands the gun was held when it was discharged left a half hour after the accident and ran into the woodland and at a late hour this afternoon no trace had been found of him. State Police and others are making a search.

With Mike Roche, 5, a brother of Billy, and Fred Lorenzo, the boys were at the Roche home. The parents of the lad worked and both were absent from home.

After the accident one of the boys ran across the street to the Nunn home and told of the shooting.

The dead boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nunn, Sr.

SKUNK TAKES POSSESSION

Police were called this morning to the Kay-Miller Ice Cream factory on Pennsylvania to eject an intruder. The voice on the phone calling the police seemed muffled and finally it stated that a "skunk" is in the office. Patrolmen Parks and Evan responded and sure enough there was a skunk holding the office. The back door of the plant had been opened and his skunkship entered. Looking the place over it chose the office as headquarters. Officers Parks and Evan had ejected other intruders, but just sort of held back over this one. Finally the animal evacuated the plant and all reigned supreme in the list of original flavors appearing on the ice cream board.

Dedication Is Being Planned By Scientists

On Sunday Oct. 18, members of First Church of Christ, Scientist in Warren, Penna. will dedicate their church edifice at 312 Market St., holding services at 10:45 in the morning and at three in the afternoon.

This property was purchased and renovated in 1929, and the first service was held here on New Year's day 1930. However, a Christian Science church may not be dedicated until it is completely out of debt. Now this requirement has been met through contributions from members and friends and a grant from the trustees under the will of Mary Baker Eddy, founder of the movement.

The building contains an auditorium seating approximately 150 people and a public reading room where Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.

During the 1940 baseball season, Detroit led all cities in attendance at one ball park, with a total of 1,112,692.

GRANGE NOTES

FARMINGTON MEETING

Announcement is made that the next regular meeting of Farmington Grange will be held October 22, when each one is asked to bring an article for a "pot luck" supper.

This unit is also making plans for entertaining Warren County Pomona Grange on November 5-6 and the home economics committee, Evelyn Wilcox, Margaret Day and Viola Firth, was asked to be in charge of meals.

At the last meeting of the unit it was voted to donate $2 to the service club and suggested that a scrapbook be made of local happenings; also that a service flag be made. Margaret Skinner reported on dances recently held and plans were made to have the dining room redecorated. A number, Alfred Nelson, was reported ill in the Jamestown General Hospital.

A fire prevention program conducted by Jennie Lyon, lecturer, consisted of a reading by Annabel Wilcox, a quiz, songs and a roll call in which members responded with one rule of fire prevention.

Pigs and chickens were introduced in the South Sea islands by emigrants from Asia.

RED FOLIAGE WARNS OF DANGER FROM FIRE

"Falling temperature and drying leaves are sounding the fall fire alert for forest fire protection forces throughout this area," Forest Supervisor R. F. Hemingway points out in a circular just received from his office.

Already one fire has been reported in the vicinity of Wetmore that destroyed 25,000 young trees.

Foresters in both state and federal agencies have been anticipating the coming dry, high-hazard period between frost and snowfall as critical to important phases of the war program. They have been laying special plans to prevent forest fire damage to defense installations during this period and to hold down loss of wood resources needed in the war. The coming of cold weather brings the "F" days, or zero hour for testing these fire protection, prevention and suppression measures.

The importance of this protection to the military effort is emphasized in a recent letter received by Regional Forester R. M. Evans from Lieut. General Hugh A. Drum, Commander of the First Army and the Eastern Defense Command.

"Protection of our forests is one of the most important duties a citizen may perform in time of war," said General Drum. "Wood, like oil, is essential to our war machine. Forest fires destroy a priceless source of raw materials and also serve the enemy by endangering vital installations."

Spring and fall are the two critical forest fire seasons in Pennsylvania. Although spring is the season of greatest fire danger, about one-third of the forest fires occur in the fall. The annual forest fire toll over the nation has been approximately $35,000,000 in property loss alone. This year any delay in the war program would have to be added to the loss or damage done.

The Office of Civilian Defense has undertaken, through local forest officials, the organization of a Forest Fire Fighters Service corps for rural areas somewhat along the lines of the air raid warden service. Special training is being given to all forest fire fighting forces, including many troops at army installations. Appointment of leaders in this voluntary group has already been made in several northwest counties of Pennsylvania.

These voluntary groups realize that they are backing up the boys who have left the home front for active service.

With the prevention plans that have been laid and with full public cooperation, foresters believe and hope that they can hold forest and woodland fire occurrence to an all-time low this fall and next spring.

REPEAT PERFORMANCE

On Oct. 15 it will have been six months since Jimmy Doolittle's squadron bombed Tokyo, interrupting a Japanese broadcast boasting that we couldn't do it.

Thus far there has been no repeat performance. We don't know why. We don't ask why, because the answer probably would be of aid—we hope not of comfort—to the Japs.

We do hope that we shall not have to wait another six months for the next installment.

High praise for Warren's air raid defense organization was heard on all sides after yesterday's surprise drill. First intimation that a test was coming appeared when air raid wardens started taking their assigned places at street intersections and members of the staff of the control center were summoned to duty. All agree that the first daylight drill, so far as Warren is concerned, was a pronounced success and all who had a part in conducting it are to be commended.

Persons who reside on unpaved streets in the borough are permitted to burn leaves outside the curb, but it should be remembered that all fires are to be closely watched to prevent spreading and damaging valuable property.

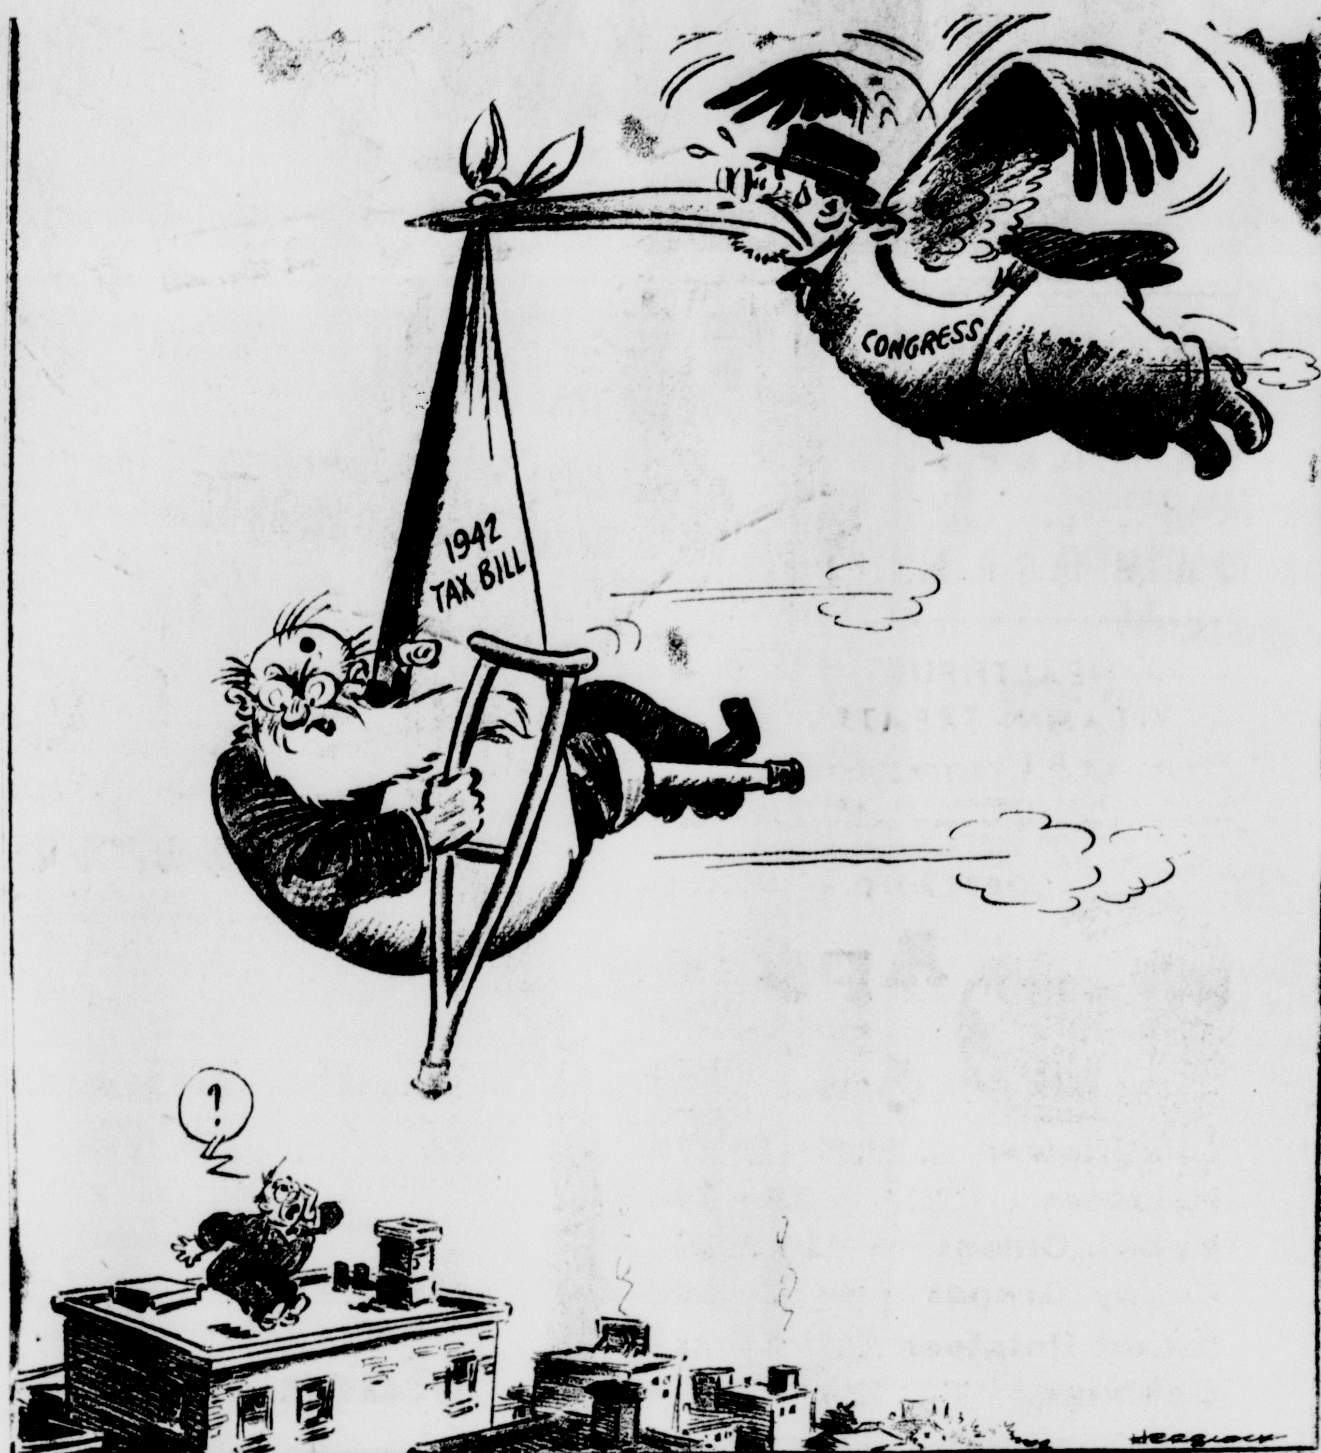

Our musical ear tells us there is plenty of scrap in Tin Pan Alley!

The Baby Arrives

Washington In Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—The Capitol in Washington is just about the biggest thing that ever happened to the city. When finished, it will have about 25 miles of offices and house 40,000 war department workers. That's big.

John E. Haines, Minneapolis air conditioning engineer, has a better way of telling how big it is. Sent to the capital by his firm to inspect the installation job, he arrived at the building at 9 o'clock in the morning and set out to find the installation crew of 34 steamfitters and three engineers. At 5 o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. Haines was still searching. On each of the four floors and basement, he had walked the more than a mile of corridors.

"Several times," he says, "I almost found them—at least I had found where they had just been, but that's as close as I got."

TO THE 300-odd soldiers in the cast of "This Is the Army," getting stuck on a fatigue detail is an experience to be avoided, if possible. Generally, such assignments are meted out as punishment for minor violations of army regulations, but often it is necessary to call for volunteers when the task is a big one.

Next day I read in the papers that it all had been a mistake, the show wasn't funny, the material was lame, and this, and that, and the other thing was all wrong.

Usually I can shrug off such differences of opinion. The critics are right most of the time, and they see more shows than I do, which gives them a better background. In this case, unfortunately, their fairly unanimous verdict leaked at the seams. They seemed determined not to like the show but their reasons differed to the point of ridiculousness.

One or two thought that the show's comic, youthful Berni Gould and Phil Leeds were bad. One or two thought Gould and Leeds were good. One planned a skit on Pan-American relations and another thought it good. One thought the scenery was professional and another thought it poor.

I WOULDN'T be making a case for "Let Freedom Sing," except for these inconsistencies, particularly the criticisms of the scenery. There's a war on, but apparently

In desperation, the sergeant went to the MP's on duty at the stage door.

"When the matinee performance is over, pick 50 men going out the door here for the treasury detail," he said.

The men got wind of it. Some of them "exited" by the fire escapes, others through the corridors of an adjoining building. But 50 got caught, were marched over to the Treasury building and into the department's little movie projection room.

The "detail" consisted of being Secretary Morgenthau's guests for a special showing of "The Whole Town's Talking."

UNHERALDED recently was the record of some kind set by an Army Air Force officer. He had an early breakfast in Foyles, Scotland, and a late dinner in Washington. The difference in time, a good tail wind and a fast bomber were reported to have done the trick.

The rumor business goes on, but there may be something to the one floating around now that the next big job the Baruch committee will be asked to undertake is a report on manpower. Vice President Wallace is said to be the chief advocate for a manpower report to the nation. The idea would be for the Baruch committee to lay the cold facts on the line and tell the public just exactly what it must expect in the way of freezing jobs, drafting labor, etc.

this particular critic overlooked the fact.

For the last ten months the Broadway stage has been talking vaguely of doing without this and that material for its settings, and I for one was beginning to wonder when this crazy business was going to start. A couple of the new musicals were as lavish as ever, and one was more so.

Then along comes "Let Freedom Sing," for the first time using plain backdrops and cheap but well-designed sets, which combined with selective lighting provide all the atmosphere necessary. I was inclined to cheer its effectiveness, ingenuity and economy, but I see by the papers that it was bad.

AS FOR Messrs. Gould and Leeds, I hope to see them again soon. With the crying demand for good comedians, I can't imagine why they haven't turned loose sooner on a laughing hungry public. Gould left the cast of the Ray Bolger show, "By Jupiter," to join "Let Freedom Sing," but his talents were wasted in the former show, and Leeds hasn't been on Broadway since the last offering of the Youth Theatre, "O' V We Sing," a year or so ago.

Gould is fairly tall and stocky, and Leeds is the wispy and waspy side, but they both dish up zany, preposterous belly-laugh humor that's good for you and doesn't have to be analyzed in a test tube.

WAR QUIZ

1. This flag—band of white, bottom of red—flew over the first focal point of World War II. What country?
2. Who is William M. Jeffers?
3. Buy U. S. War Bonds and Stamps. Maybe you've seen those giant 60-ton tanks rumbling in maneuvers. It takes a lot of bonds to buy one of them, brother. Guess how many: 3600, 4900, 6400?

Volunteer Fire Fighters To Handle Flames In Woodlands

Organization of a Volunteer Fire Fighters Service is under way in the county in the hands of the employees of the Department of Forests and Waters and they have made some progress. Due to the war's disruption of the Fire Warden service and the possible danger of woods fires set by saboteurs the Volunteer Fire Service is expected to function during the life of the war.

The fact during any war raid is that the urban districts would be so busy with their problems that the suburban and woods areas could not call upon the town for aid. The organization of the local residents of the woods areas into a fire fighting force is therefore a necessity. It is being arranged through sectors into which every state of the Union is being divided. There will be Sector Chiefs, assistants and then fire fighter groups. Through them it is expected every family in the more sparsely settled sections can be enlisted in the volunteer service.

Progress has been made and many Sector Chiefs have already been selected and they in turn are working up an organization. The Sector chiefs so far chosen in the county are as follows:

Brokenstraw, D. W. Mourer, Youngsville, Cherry Grove, Henry Sorenson, Columbus, Leslie J. Dodd, Columbus, Conewango, George Eberhardt, North Warren, Corydon, W. F. Williams, Deerfield, Gerald Harrington, Eldred, South West, Fred Lindquist, Grand Valley, Elk, Anthony Smith, Fox Hill, Freehold, L. S. Chapman, Bear Lake, Glad, William Olney, Glade Twp., Kinzua, Paul Marrell, Kinzua, Linestone, Watson, Earl Wilcox, Watson Twp., Mead, Frank Harvey.

Mrs. C. A. Atkinson, of Freeport, who is district director of the American Legion Auxiliary, was in Warren Tuesday evening to install the following as officers of the local unit for the coming year:

President, Mrs. Elmer Munksgard; first vice president, Mrs. Marshall Storum; second vice president, Mrs. Clara Driscoll; secretary, Mrs. Melvin Johnson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Harry Nelson; treasurer, Mrs. R. F. Hildum; chaplain, Mrs. Elizabeth Dunham; historian, Mrs. H. J. Fleckenstein; sergeant at arms, Mrs. Theodore Fox.

In addition, these officers for the Junior Auxiliary were installed: President, Patsy Chester; first vice president, Vangie Sealise; chaplain, Patricia Graebner; historian, Mary Scrivano; sergeant at arms, Josephine Gatto; secretary, Carol Proud.

Since this was the last business meeting of the old year, all annual reports were presented, showing outstanding work in rehabilitation, the poppy sale, Americanism, membership and civilian defense. Special awards were received from the department for exceeding the membership quota; also to the Junior Auxiliary for its activities as the outstanding junior unit in the western section.

A gift of appreciation was presented to Mrs. Munksgard for her splendid leadership of juniors and Mrs. Atkinson was given a gift in recognition of her visit and work of installing officers. Mrs. H. M. Putnam, a past president, presented a past president's pin to the retiring leader, Mrs. C. D. Cannon.

Delegates and alternates were named to the Inter-county Council meeting at Mt. Jewett on October 24 and attention was called to the rummage sale to be held in the Beckley building October 23-24. Members were also requested to make surgical dressings at Red Cross headquarters each Monday evening.

To conclude the pleasant evening, refreshments were served with Mrs. Munksgard and Mrs. Cannon presiding at the pretty table. Fall flowers were used throughout the Legion Home and silver service and candles appointed the table.

Garment Collection Day Is Selected By Needlework Guild

Following a tray luncheon at the YWCA cafeteria at noon Wednesday, directors of the Warren Branch, Needlework Guild of America, held a business meeting and set the date for the annual in-gathering.

Wednesday, October 28, was the date chosen, with the garment display and tea at the Woman's Club from three until five o'clock. All contributing members are invited and urged to be present.

Needs of various organizations which benefit from the Needlework Guild gifts were outlined by Miss Agnes McLaughlin, state nurse; Mrs. H. R. Fisher, Warren Relief Association; Mrs. Martin Manders, Children's Aid Society.

Presiding, Mrs. E. W. Knapp, president of the branch, read a letter from President Roosevelt concerning the Needlework Guild as a war activity and another from Norman H. Davis for the American Red Cross.

She appointed a tea committee for Garment Day; also the following nominating committee for election of officers: Mrs. T. N. Donaldson, Mrs. William Hill and Mrs. O. A. Pressel.

Mrs. Althea N. Correll was called upon to tell of Girl Scout plans for the garment collection this year and Mrs. Knapp reported that Boy Scouts will again assist in delivery of articles to the various participating organizations.

Committee Judging Student Entries In PTA Poster Contest

Meeting with Miss Hildegarde Edwards at four o'clock this afternoon in the high school, judges will select winners in the Community PTA Council's annual poster contest promoting its Clare Tree Major plays. Other members of the judging committee are Mrs. Robert Schorman and Mrs. Ernest Beckwith.

Winning entries will be shown in the window of the Miller store on Liberty street Saturday evening and awards will be made from the high school stage Monday afternoon, when the first play is given.

Opening the local schedule this season will be the widely beloved "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" by Kate Douglas Wiggin. Library copies of this book, as well as those individually owned, have become dog-eared by many handlings and constant readings, and most grown-ups still remember Rebecca of their childhood days. Many older theatregoers will remember when Mary Pickford was seen in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm".

Take them to your meat dealer!

Every drop of waste kitchen fat is needed to make the high explosives necessary to blast Hitler & Co. off the map. For fats make glycerine. And glycerine makes explosives for the U. S. and our allies.

So, save all your waste fats after you've got the good from them. Bacon grease, drippings, vegetable shortening - everything. Strain the fats through a sieve into a clean, wide-mouthed can. Please don't use paper or glass. Take to your meat dealer after you've saved a pound or more. He will pay you the established price for waste fats and get them started on their way to the war factories. Your meat dealer, in doing this as a public service, and you can help him greatly by delivering your fats and greases early in the week.

Flowers in House Will Cheer War Winter

Wartime economies place a premium on the simple pleasures which can be enjoyed at home, without travel, and at small expense. One of the most effective foils for the gloomy days of winter is a window garden, which continually reminds us of sunny days not far away.

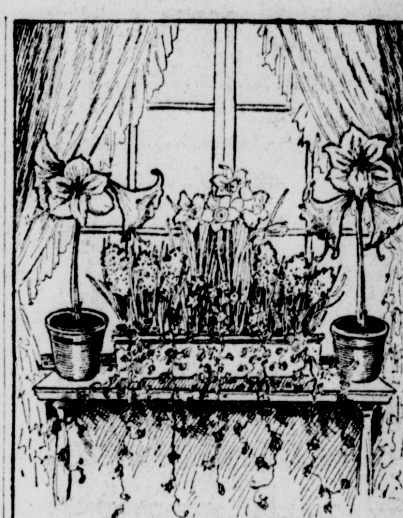

A great variety of flowers may be forced into bloom indoors with little trouble. Arranged on shelves, or in a window box near a sunny window, they will keep fresh throughout the winter the memory of summer days.

Experience in growing flowers indoors is of value in outdoor operations, too. The gardener sees at close hand the progress of the plants, and learns how gratefully they respond to intelligent care.

The easiest plants to grow indoors are the bulbs, both the hardy kinds, which are grown in gardens, and tender varieties which will not stand our winters, but grow vigorously indoors.

Some of them need potting in soil, others can be grown in bowls with fibre, moss, or even pebbles and water. Select them according to the experience you have had, and the attention you are willing to give them. It is easiest to grow those which flower in pebbles and water, but more interesting, and a better test of your gardening skill, to bring into flowers those which require soil.

All bulbs can be grown in soil, a smaller number in fibre, and still fewer in water with pebbles, or moss. To begin with the latter, they include the tender narcissi known as Paper Whites (white), Soliel d'Or, (yellow), and Chinese sacred lilies.

In bulb fibre, which is a mixture of peat and plant food, it is possible to grow in bowls without drainage all the above, together with daffodils, early tulips, crocuses, freesias, calla lilies, grape hyacinths and scillas.

In pots with soil all the above can be grown, together with all garden tulips and narcissi, amaryllis, and by the more skillful, lilies.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Mr. Val Lewton, a gentleman with a sense of humor, has the horrors.

They were wished on him by Mr. Charles Koerner, a gentleman with a sense of business and movie titles, and Mr. Lewton is having a wonderful time. Mr. Koerner is the latest in the long line of production chiefs at RKO. Mr. Koerner, a showman with an eye for a showman's dollar, is out to do a job of money-making for the movie lot where, bearing out the old saying, nothing has been permanent except change.

Mr. Koerner picked on Val Lewton, who used to be story editor, for David O. Selznick, to make some quick money out of the horrors. That made Val Lewton a producer. "A producer," as the Great Selznick told Val, "is the only one in pictures who has any fun."

CHARLIE KOERNER thought people were in the mood for horror pictures now. Charlie Koerner thought up some titles: "The Cat People," "Seventh Victim," "The Leopard Man," "I Walked with a Zombie." All Val Lewton has to do is turn out pictures to fit the titles. He has finished one.

"The Cat People" is all about a lovely girl (Simone Simon) who goes through life expecting momentarily to turn into a cat, because her mother did. And—what do you know?—she does. She's going along peaceful as you please, minding her knitting, but the minute love (Kent Smith) hits her, she can't be sure any more, because that's when cat people turn into cats. So it's a fine, spooky how-do-you-do before the non-cat girl (Jane Randolph) lands her non-cat man.

This, of course, is based on an old Serbian legend—concocted by Val Lewton and writer DeWitt Bodeen.

Horror has led Val Lewton and Bodeen into a picnic of research. They've been reading hundreds of books on the occult, the mysterious, the satanical—and they've learned things. Val can rattle off dozens of odd items about cats, but we'll save those for cat-lovers and another day.

He, too, seriously, is sold on horror, and here's why: "People are worried. There's a war, and whether they know it or not, they're scared. It's a very real fright—and a horror picture can be the antidote. They can sit in a theater and look at a story that's fantastic, with no connection to reality whatever, and shudder and groan and tremble just as if it were real. It gives us an outlet, a means to sublimate fear."

HORROR? It's a funny thing (Val Lewton says) how the real horror scenes are taken for granted. Like the 2 a.m. when the black leopard got loose on the sound stage. Setting? Dark and shadowy, an old beach scene on one side, the "Cat People" set on the other, and the leopard wandering around loose, escaped from his keeper. Death and fury stalking, and the set crowded with extras.

"That was horror," says Val Lewton. "You know how they took it? Calmly. People said, 'The cat's loose—look out and went on with their gin rummy!'"

HOW HOUSEWIVES CAN HELP ASSURE A SUPPLY OF KOEHLER'S

BUY QUARTS

As a result of wartime restrictions on use of bottle caps, the demand for KOEHLER'S in bottles is greater than the supply. That's why we are asking all home users to buy quarts whenever possible. Each quart contains more than 2 1/2 times as much as the steeple and, of course, uses only one bottle cap. Buy KOEHLER'S Beer and Old Dobbin Ale (in quarts) from your neighborhood dealer—or the distributor named below.

SAVE CAPS

You can help by returning used bottle caps to the brewery. Just throw them in the case or carton when you open your bottle of KOEHLER'S. Thanks.

MEN... When you are in your favorite cafe, club, or tavern, ask for KOEHLER'S on draught. The next time you are dining out try KOEHLER'S on tap. The Erie Brewing Co., Erie, Pa.

Girl Scouts To Increase Membership

According to announcement made at the October meeting of Warren County Council, the Girl Scout organization in the United States has been requested by the federal government to greatly increase its membership in the immediate future. This was made known by Mrs. N. K. Wendelboe, organization committee chairman, when members met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Karl Nichols.

This increase, which will amount to doubling the membership, will include extension of the movement into areas where it is not now active. Enlargement of the program for high school age girls is foreseen with the inception of Wing Scouts. These girls learn the basic facts of aviation and prepare for future work in industry and flying.

Mrs. E. E. Koebley announced that Ludlow stands at the top of communities reporting on progress in the rural financial canvass. In the first five days of the campaign Ludlow contingent was within a few dollars of its quota. Pittsfield and Sheffield were next, with Youngsville a close runner-up. The campaign closes tomorrow.

A total of 6,720 meals were served at Camp Birdsall Edey at Grunderville this summer, according to Mrs. F. L. Abendroth, camp committee chairman, who also reported on extensive repairs and improvements.

Plans for Girl Scout Week, October 25 to 31, were given by Mrs. Vance Weld and Mrs. D. E. Conaway. The observance will begin with the "Scout's Own" service at Beatty school on Sunday, October 25, and will include presentation of gifts to the Needlework Guild, participation in service projects and the launching of a cold prevention campaign in conjunction with the health project.

THIS YOUNG LADY looks as if she might be working in an apothecary shop but she's not—she is a bearing inspector in a Tarnstedt plant of the Fisher Body Division of General Motors engaged in manufacture of Sperry gyro horizon and directional gyro indicators for aircraft. The rotor wheel in the gyro instruments whirls at 12,000 revolutions per minute on these bearings so they must be as near perfect as is humanly possible to make them. They are machined to an accuracy of ten-thousandths of an inch and are kept in oil to protect them from even minute specks of dirt, for even a speck invisible to the naked eye could destroy the accuracy of the instrument. The bearings this girl is inspecting through a 15-power microscope are ready for assembly and are being given a final check for the tiniest flaw.

READY for any emergency, Mary Campbell of New York City checks over the equipment of the only one-woman ambulance service in America. Both Miss Campbell and the ambulance, which was presented to her by officers and employees of the publishing house of which she is executive secretary, are subject to 24-hour-a-day call by the Office of Civilian Defense. Outside office hours Miss Campbell teaches first aid, does volunteer nursing, and polishes instruments for the Medical and Surgical Relief Committee of America.

Besides having barrage balloons set for protection of the Panama Canal, there is also a "killer-net," a mesh of steel cables extending across the canal which would entangle any plane swooping down to drop a torpedo.

Two American old-line aviation engine companies, together with their automotive licensees, have attained such a volume of production that each of them is outbuilding the entire aircraft horsepower output of Nazi Germany.

Evangelist Of Fame Will Speak Here

Gipsy Simon Smith, internationally known evangelist and singer, will be guest speaker for two weeks of special services to be held in the First Evangelical church beginning Sunday, October 18. Services will be held each evening, except Saturday, at 7:45 p. m., and the public is invited.

Evangelist Smith's unique, original and interesting preaching has attracted record crowds wherever he has been heard. In the last 40 years he has preached all over the United States and in Canada, addressing service clubs, college groups, schools and church organizations.

It is recalled that his life began in a gypsy camp in an English forest, that he became a rolling stone, a horse breaker in Texas and Mexico. He has crossed the ocean 45 times, is self educated and writes and sings many of his town compositions during his personal appearance.

Cpl. Joseph B. Rodgers, who is with a tank destroyer battalion at Camp Hood, Temple, Texas, has returned to his duties after a furlough at home with relatives in Warren and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson, 831¹/₂ West Fifth avenue, have received word that their son, Pvt. Kenneth L. Anderson, has been transferred from Fort Sheridan, Ill., to Paterson, N. J.

Gilbert B. Knupp, of Warren, recently promoted to the grade of second lieutenant at Fort Benning, Ga., is spending a furlough in town with relatives.

Lt. (jg.) Richard Evans, Jr., is home on a short leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Richard Evans, Cayuga avenue.

Pvt. James Alton Blyler, marine aviation detachment, naval training school in Chicago, Ill., is home on leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Blyler, 107 Dartmouth street.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hagberg, of Scandia, that their son, Robert, who left Erie last week with a Selective Service contingent, is now at Fort Sam Houston in Texas.

Lt. (jg.) Horton Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horton Smith, of New Orleans, La., is a guest at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Craft, Liberty street, while en route to a post in the east.

Tulsa University is Best Team For All-Around Balance

Ohio State Given Honors For Being Country's Offensive Leader In The Latest Poll

BY ARNOLD DERLITZKI
Chicago, Oct. 15—(P)—Ohio State, the nation's No. 1 football team in this week's Associated Press poll, also is the country's offensive leader, but honors for all-around balance go to smaller Tulsa University.

Figures from the American Football Statistical Bureau today showed Tulsa, defending Missouri Valley champion, runner up to Ohio State in total offense, first in total defense, second to Columbia in forward passing, first in pass defense and fourth in defense against rushing.

The Golden Hurricanes achieved this record chiefly at the expense of service teams, defeating the Waco Army Flying School, 84-0, and Randolph Field, 68-0. But the team was much the same against college opposition. It trounced Oklahoma, 23-0.

An indication of the Hurricanes' balance is given in the offense figures. They have gained 634 yards by rushing and 618 by passing for an average gain per game of 47.2 yards. Ohio State, which finished the 1939 season as the nation's No. 1 offensive team, has an average of 457.3 yards to show for its first three games this season. Of its total of 1,372 yards gained, 1,016 have been by rushing.

Tulsa has permitted an average of only 46 yards a game in total defense. Manhattan was second at 71, followed by Illinois (76.3), Arizona, last week's leader, (79.7) and Temple (85.5).

Against forward passes Tulsa has yielded an average of 15.3 yards a game. Then came Arizona (22.7), Illinois (23.3), Georgia Naval Pre-flight (26.7) and North Carolina (29.3).

As throwing passes, the Golden Hurricanes were outranked only by Columbia and its ace, Paul Gernami, who have averaged 250.3 yards to Tulsa's 206. Third was Georgia with 166, then Georgia Naval Pre Flight (161.3) and Southern Methodist (154.7).

Brown topped Ohio State in average yards gained by rushing with 346 in two games to the Buckeyes 338.7 in three. Behind the leaders were Illinois (327), Dartmouth (298), and Arizona (297.7). Tops against rushing tactics was Boston College with a minus 8.5 for two games to lead Alabama with plus 21.3. Manhattan (30), Tulsa (30.7) and Syracuse (31).

Punting honors went to the North Carolina Naval Pre Flight, which averaged 41.79 yards a punt. Wyoming followed at 41.20 and then Marquette and Harvard, both with fractions over 40 yards.

Only teams reporting games to date have been mentioned. Vanderbilt, for example, set the pace in total offense, total defense and rushing defense, but figures had not been reported on last week's 7-6 win over Kentucky.

Other total defense leaders were Missouri, 233.8 average, Boston College, 367.5, Illinois 361, Columbia 358.7, Alabama 353.3, Detroit 348 and Dartmouth 317.

Home Folks Laud Musial

Donora, Pa., Oct. 15—(P)—Slugging Stan Musial, young outfielder of the St. Louis Cardinals, who showed no fear of the New York Yankees in the recent World Series, lost his voice last night as home town folks paid tribute to him as an athlete.

The youngster, who completed his first year in the majors in a blaze of glory, was the honored guest last night at a testimonial dinner attended by approximately 400 fans. His wife, parents, sister and his wife's parents flanked him.

After Honus Wagner, veteran Pirate coach, William Benswanger, president of the Pirates, George Susce, Cleveland Indians' coach, Poppe Kelchner, scout of the St. Louis Cardinals, and others had told what a fine fellow he was, Stan got up and tried to speak.

A few words was all he could say. He sat down amidst applause.

Covering The Sports Front!

By "BOB" JOHNSON

With the impending meat shortage, the cry has gone out whether or not hunting should be used to convert some of our nation's big game into table treats, or ban all hunting for the duration. Some contend that the country's estimated 6,000,000 head of deer, elk, bear, and what have you should be used to balance the shortage, while others say that for conservation measures, killing of these different species may be used as an excuse to use the few remaining big-game animals as a counter-action for the shortage—Kenneth A. Reid, writing in the current issue of Outdoors, best answers this—He states: that hunting should be allowed to the extent that it will not endanger the population of big game, and in the case of deer will tend to thin out the herds before winter—the issue also explains that a lack of patriotism is felt by a few who have the yen to pack a gun through the hills and fields. But, to clear that conscience, the states need your money in license fees etc., to carry on stocking programs; surplus in some species need harvesting; the country needs reliable, dependable men in the fields as an additional protection against saboteurs; and finally, the millions of pounds of meat the sportsmen remove from the woods yearly will relieve the meat shortage.

Hot flashes—the Sheffield O'Connors and the National Forge are "definite" for the approaching basketball season. The Warren steel team is going to attempt to extract one from the Jamestown reserves on Monday—Starting today, all hunters stoop and pick up that ejected shell for conservation measures—Also keep your eye on the victim at the same time—Boxes at strategic positions, to accommodate the hunters, may be placed for the disposal of empty shells—Gargantua's former nursemaid is now playing with the Philadelphia Eagles—He says the best lineup in the world would include a cripple carrying the ball and the gorilla at center—S'puff.

Bird Season Is Now Open

Harrisburg, Oct. 15—(P)—Hunters opened Pennsylvania's 70-day duck and geese season at sunrise today and Ross L. Leffler, president of the game commission, emphasized that the dates of other seasons were unchanged.

With prospects for hunting migratory birds "better than for some time," nimrods were reminded that the sunrise to sunset legal shooting hours change on Oct. 30 to 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Four Games Will Be Broadcast This Week

BY C. E. BUTTERFIELD
New York, Oct. 15—Wide-World's This year the networks, more than ever, are scheduling football broadcasts only a few days before they take place.

One reason is to avoid duplication by too many networks describing the same game, although this plan has not been altogether strictly followed. Another reason the radio sports experts say, is to permit carrying the contests with the widest interest, based on previous victories.

So, this week's contest schedule only now has been completed. It calls for four games, one of which, Notre Dame vs. Iowa Pre-Flight, will be heard on both CBS and ELU. MES has scheduled two games, starting out with Colgate vs. Duke and then switching to Iowa vs. Illinois. Concluding the lineup will be Alabama vs. Tennessee, which NEC is to handle.

Chapter 25
In A Trap

JULIE hunted up a little smile to match Pete's. "Where do we go from here?" "We don't," he said, and he paced the narrow room slowly. "Darned if I can figure this one out. I haven't even got a theory, now. The whole thing is haywire."

"Do you think Mr. Kelland has lost his mind?" Pete shook his head. "He's not insane, anyway. He must have lost his good judgment, though. Anybody could see this fellow Mount is a four-flusher."

"His name isn't 'Mount', of course," Julie thought aloud. "I think you're right. But why do you suppose he's so set on keeping us here?"

"Suppose he is guilty of setting that forest fire," Julie began, frowning at her wits. "And suppose he is cooperating with the enemy—an agent of some kind. Naturally, he would suspect everyone of being wise to him. He knows we think something is rotten here. He didn't expect us. Now his own plans have to be altered."

"But what has Kelland to do with it?" Julie shrugged. "You have me there. Unless Dawn is involved some way."

"Involved in burning up her own property?" Pete scoffed. "Not much."

"All right. You guess." Pete rubbed his chin reflectively. "I'm guessing Dawn's in a scrape and Kelland came to buy or beg her out of it. The part I can't guess about is the gun-play. Unless she actually was kidnapped. That, of course, might account for Kelland's strange behavior."

"Trying to keep it secret until he'd paid a ransom, of course," Julie supplemented. "I still don't see why he didn't encourage us to go on to the car and let Mount make his get-away."

Pete snorted. "A grade-A kidnapper wouldn't let anybody get away who might identify him later."

"Well, what do you think he'll do with us?" "That will depend on how smart we play our cards, Julie. If I could think of some—"

The Clicking Heels
"LISTEN!" Julie stiffened. A sound of footsteps overhead—short, sharp-heeled steps of a woman. A murmur of voices rising angrily, hushed abruptly, beginning again as a muffled hum. Then a door opened. The footsteps clicked steadily down the hall, down the stairs. Heavier steps followed immediately.

A moment later the sound of a key crunching in the lock and the parlor door opened.

For a moment, Julie could not convince herself that the pale, hollow-eyed girl standing before her now was actually Dawn Kelland. Immaculate in white slacks, a soft silk shirt, a little girl bow tucked into a tie—most curiously Dawn smiled, held out her hands in greeting with the same silvery.

"Hello, darlings. I know you must think we are all perfectly mad—blithely, and turned to Pete. "Forgive us, won't you?"

Both Pete and Julie stood mute, however, because the next brought the sneering Mr. Mount into the doorway.

"Sit down, won't you?" Dawn went on, perching on the arm of the old sofa. "It's all such a terribly long—and dull—story. But, you will be patient, won't you?" Julie nodded, too absorbed in trying to reconcile Dawn's light-hearted words with the tragic terror written so plainly in her big blue eyes. Nothing matched up. The jaunty outfit, her bright smile—the nervous, almost imperceptible twitch of her eyelids, the faint, unnatural huskiness in her voice. And of course, to Julie's practiced eye, it was quite obvious that it had been Dawn's weeping they had heard.

"Well—it does seem sort of dopey," Pete grinned, leaning an elbow on each knee as he sat waiting for her to go on. "Your friend here says your father's lost his mind."

Dawn moistened her lips, smiled at the tall, dark man beside her. "Yes, I am afraid he has. You see—"

Once again she hesitated, glanced toward her companion. This time Julie intercepted the glance he returned to her. Coldly threatening, he held an invisible gun at her back.

He walked deliberately to the sofa, sat down. Beside Dawn, took her fluttering hand. Julie caught the little gesture of withdrawal in the instant before Dawn deliberately leaned against the man's arm.

"Daddy's been very ill, as you know," Dawn began slowly, as if trying to remember exact words. "He has always objected to Arnold's and my being friends. And when he found that we were planning to elope he followed us here in a fit of insane rage."

"Well," Pete shook his head sympathetically. "Had he ever had rages like that before?"

"Oh, no. Never. It was just—this time. And—you see he threatened to send for—"

Dawn went on more rapidly now. "When Arnold, Arnold, I mean, found you here he thought you must be officers sent to—prevent our marriage."

Dawn's Plan
SHE laughed nervously, looked up at him a moment, evidently saw approval in his expression, and went on. "So that's why he pulled a gun on you. I do hope you aren't too terribly frightened."

"No—not exactly," Julie said. "Not frightened so much as unconvinced. Dawn was not in love with this man. She was terrified of him. What was the awful secret she was trying so desperately to hide?"

"And now I feel that since it was so terribly fortunate that you did happen to come just at the right time," Dawn said glibly, "perhaps you can persuade Dad that it isn't a crime for me to—love—Arnold. Won't you help me persuade him, please?" she begged prettily.

Julie ached with sympathy for the girl. Desperate, in mortal fear, she was obviously putting up a gallant fight—but for what, Julie couldn't possibly guess. Certainly it was not for love of this man.

That her "Arnold" loved her was more nearly believable. No, Julie amended the thought immediately, it wasn't "love" but rather "desire." He wanted Dawn, but no face that full of cruelty could possibly be one of a man truly in love. He was determined to have her, fair means or foul. And Julie knew intuitively, these means were certainly "foul."

"What do you want us to do?" Julie asked quietly.

"Stay on, just as you'd planned," she answered rapidly. "and take Daddy fishing with you when you go out in the morning. Arnold can go along and perhaps that way Dad can really get acquainted with him enough to—forgive me."

Julie and Pete exchanged glances.

"Sounds like a good idea—to me," Pete said slowly. "If you think he's strong enough to stand a little bickering."

"He'd love it. And we'll both be terribly grateful to you if you will help. Won't we, darling?" Arnold bowed dramatically. "I will owe our future happiness to your sympathetic cooperation."

Which remark, Julie felt unaccountably, might mean what it seemed to say—and might not. The instant dislike which she had taken to the man that day on the trail, grew to loathing now.

Letters to the Editor

Editor Times Mirror: Where in the name of all that is Holy did

Dr. M. V. Ball get the idea that our public servants—the county commissioners—are going to pile

the court house fence on the scrap pile? He must have some inside information. Because no one else seems to have heard of it.

It seems to me that the bird who wrote the letter the other day saying that voters should remember the bull headed boys when it comes time to elect a new board of commissioners have the right idea. Those lads in the Court House evidently have the old idea

"The Public Be Damned" which comes to some men who are given a little brief authority. The soldier boys who find that their own county fails to back them 100% will have every right when they come home to demand a reckoning.

Here's hoping that after they trim

Hitler they turn their attention to the Dictator trio in the Commissioners office. Wouldn't it be fun to see the Junior Hitler, Son of the Rising Sun, and Mussolini all on the run? Tidouste Taxpayer.

POLITICAL FORUM

Pittsburgh, Oct. 15.—(P)—The state must act to prevent an increase in juvenile delinquency

after the war, Adjutant General Edward Martin, Republican nominee for governor, declared last night.

Citing a "greater need than ever for state-organized family care and day nursery facilities," he said that as "fathers go off to war work, and mothers go into the war work,

the unformed minds of little children

"We have a generation growing up without proper or adequate moral or spiritual training," he added
